Born in Asheville.

It started, as many good things do, in Asheville, North Carolina - a mountain city where the fog rolls in like it has something to say, and seekers have always congregated.

DMT World put its first designs on Etsy in 2014. Eleven years later it has shipped over ten thousand orders, earned 3,000+ admirers, and gathered nearly half a million Instagram followers. Those aren't numbers - they're people who pulled a shirt from a mailer, held it up, and felt something click.

The brand was never trying to start a clothing company in the conventional sense. It was trying to start a conversation - to be the shirt that makes a stranger in the cereal aisle squint and say, "Wait... is that a machine elf?" And something opens.

"The goal is to promote a conscious awakening through the use of clothing. These clothes will spark questions and create an awareness which will help lead to an awakening." That mission is the gravitational center of everything DMT World makes.

Purpose, Mission, Vision, Values.

PURPOSE

To clothe the awakening - to make visible the invisible truths that hum beneath consensus reality, one wearable spark at a time.

MISSION

Create expressive-art apparel that plants seeds of cosmic curiosity. Every design is a question in fabric form.

VISION

A world where more people ask the big questions - and where that inquiry is joyful, communal, and wearable.

VALUES

- Curiosity over certainty - Shirts that make you want the questions.
- Art as activation - A design can interrupt a thought, ignite a conversation.
- Cosmic levity - The profound and the absurd in the same hand.
- Community of seekers - Psychonauts, festival-goers, meditators, meme lords - all welcome.
- Integrity of expression - We create; you contemplate.

We Are / We Are Not.

For the spiritually curious and the cosmically playful, DMT World is the expressive-art apparel brand that translates inner space into wearable art - rooted in genuine philosophical inquiry, served with humor, beauty, and a wink.

WE ARE

- + Expressive-art apparel on consciousness themes
- + Sacred geometry brought to streetwear
- + Philosophy made wearable and funny
- + A community, not just a product line

The brand that makes you ask 'what does that + MEAN?'

WE ARE NOT

- x A source of any controlled substance
- x Edgy-for-edgy's-sake shock merch
- x Spirituality without humor
- x Luxury fashion ($23, deliberately accessible)
- x Preachy, earnest, or self-important

Four Kinds of Seeker.

THE PSYCHONAUT-CURIOUS

22-38. Read McKenna, take the big questions seriously without being pretentious. They notice the machine-elf reference. That's the point.

THE FESTIVAL SET

The perennial convergers. Need gear that performs in the field - neon-on-black that photographs from across a crowd.

THE SPIRITUALLY PLAYFUL

They meditate and talk chakras unironically - but allergic to solemnity. 'You are a divine being' is true and also kind of hilarious.

THE MEME-NATIVE

18-28, extremely online, arrived via a great Reel. Want apparel that speaks the language fluently. 'Otter Body Experience' is for them.

The Cosmic Trickster.

DMT World lives where the Jester meets the Sage. The Jester knows laughter is the fastest delivery mechanism for truth. The Sage knows things that can't be unsaid. Together: the coyote of consciousness, the winking elf at the edge of hyperspace.

- Witty - the pun is sacred technology
- Warm - you are ALL divine beings - all of you
- Irreverent - serious about the universe, never about itself
- Visionary - the fractal is a map, not decoration
- Playful - the cosmic joke is funny - laugh
- Grounded - mountain-rooted Asheville energy

If DMT World were a person at a festival, they'd be the one by the fire at 2 a.m. handing you something warm, saying something that sounds like a pun and turns out to be a koan, dissolving into laughter before you decide which it was.

Cosmic. Witty. Warm. Surprising.

Depth without solemnity, humor without shallowness, sincerity without earnestness. Every line could've been texted to a friend at 2 a.m. by someone very amused and very awake.

DO

- + Use wordplay that rewards attention
- + Speak to the shared cosmic joke
- + Mix the profound and the absurd
- + Be warm and inclusive
- + Trust the audience to get it
- + Celebrate the questions

DON'T

- x Be clever with no meaning
- x Preach from spiritual authority
- x Rank one above the other
- x Gatekeep who belongs
- x Over-explain the joke
- x Claim the answers

SAMPLE LINES

"You are a divine being. This shirt knows it. Now you do too."

"Inner space: the final frontier. Dress accordingly."

"The secret doesn't hide. It just waits for the right question."

Three Phrases, One Frequency.

THE SECRET DWELLS WITHIN

Primary signature. The turn inward - past surface consensus to the humming truth underneath.

ONE BIG COSMIC JOKE

Levity as liberation. Permission to be funny about the profound. Not deflection - wisdom.

YOU ARE ALL DIVINE BEINGS

Community embrace. A philosophical assertion delivered with a wink. Everyone is already what they seek.

The Winking Machine-Elf.

Half geometric, half organic, composed of interlocking fractal geometry - its defining feature one eye in a knowing wink. Small enough to embroider, complex enough to reward a second look. Full color: Machine-Elf Green with Hyperspace Magenta shadow and Electric Cyan eye-glow.

CLEAR SPACE & MISUSE

Minimum clear space = cap-height of the 'D'. Never rotate, add drop shadows, place on busy backgrounds without a black keyline, substitute typefaces, or use off-palette colors.

Bright Signal, Absolute Void.

MEANING

Void = the substrate of all things. Magenta = the breakthrough that cannot be unseen. Green = living intelligence. Violet = the liminal. Cyan = recognition. Gold = the awakening point, used sparingly.

Museum and Mosh Pit.

As Seen On DMT

DISPLAY / SYNE EXTRA-BOLD (HELVETICA BOLD SHOWN)

The workhorse of the system - warm, slightly unusual letterforms that keep reading pleasant on dark backgrounds. The shirt is the canvas. The wearer is the question.

BODY / SPACE GROTESK (HELVETICA SHOWN)

TRANSMISSION_RECEIVED // 33 DESIGNS // $23.00

MONO / SPACE MONO (COURIER SHOWN)

SCALE

Hero	Syne ExtraBold 64-96px
H1	Syne ExtraBold 48px
H2	Syne ExtraBold 32px
Body	Space Grotesk 16-18px
Labels	Space Mono 11-13px

Web fonts: Syne / Space Grotesk / Space Mono (Google Fonts). This PDF substitutes system fonts for portability.

Pull Them In.

THE VISUAL WORLD

Maximalist by design - but intentional, not chaos. High-saturation fractal geometry, sacred geometry (Flower of Life, Metatron's Cube, golden spirals), luminous machine elves, perspective-collapsing hyperspace tunnels, neon-on-black.

DO / DON'T

- + Deep dimensional fractals with a clear focal point
- x Busy noise with no anchor
- + Humor in the imagery - winking elves, visual puns
- x Generic trippy stock aesthetics
- + Reference inner-space metaphor visually
- x Depict or imply substance acquisition

MOTION LANGUAGE

Always inward and forward, toward a center that keeps receding. Tunnel Travel that breathes. The Winking Elf blinks knowingly. Shimmer pulses (3-6s), never strobing. Motion should feel like revelation, not stimulation.

The Double-Register Pun.

Every product name is a small act of philosophy disguised as a pun. Surface meaning (funny, immediate) + depth meaning (the real idea). The gap between is where the brand lives.

FORMULA

[familiar phrase] + [consciousness / nature / cosmic substitution] = product name

Otter Body Experience

'Out-of-body' + otter - the cute animal as cosmic vehicle

Youniverse

You + universe - you're not in the cosmos, you are one

Fun Guy

Fungi - the mushroom kingdom as the punchline

Terence Creation

McKenna + 'immaculate conception' - lineage as sacred origin

As Seen On DMT

Infomercial parody - the inner vision as the only review that matters

THE LINE

33 graphic tees and long sleeves, all $23. Deliberately accessible - the price point is a statement. The product is the canvas.

The Feed Is a Gallery.

PLATFORMS

Instagram (471K) is the spiritual home - visual-first, 5-7 posts/week. TikTok (growth) leans into motion language and the deadpan Cosmic Trickster voice in 15-30s clips.

CONTENT PILLARS

- 30% Product Art - the design as the post; let the fractal speak
- 25% Philosophical Provocations - one idea, beautifully typeset
- 20% Community - customer reposts, festival sightings, shirts in the wild
- 15% Humor / Meme - wordplay designs delivered straight
- 10% Brand Story - Asheville, origin, the mission in their own words

CAPTION FORMULA

Short. One idea. Often a question. Trust the image to do the work. Example: "Youniverse." / The whole cosmos, wearing one shirt.
